FUEL SURCHARGE

We set the price of ski packages in the spring, before fuel and helicopter costs for the upcoming season are determined. As such, we may add a fuel /helicopter surcharge to the package price, should fuel and/or helicopter lease expenses exceed our projected costs.

CANCELATION POLICY

• On cancellations made 120 days prior to your arrival, payment minus your deposit will be refunded.
• We do NOT offer refunds on cancelations made within 120 days of arrival.
We strongly recommend you purchase Trip Cancelation/Disruption, Emergency Medical/Evacuation Insurance.
If you wish to find out more information on this coverage please call Sanderson Travel Insurance at 877-226-8728 or purchase online at http://www.sandersontravelinsurance.com and follow the links.

• If the guest can find a valid replacement (win 48hrs) the deposit or full payment will be transferred to the new guest. For safety reasons, a valid space replacement is subject to the new guests weight and skiing ability being appropriate for the rest of the group. The guest will be responsible for collecting payment from the replacement person.
• Bearpaw Heli-Skiing Ltd. reserves the right to cancel any Bearpaw Heli-Skiing package at any time. Full refund for ski package will be refunded in this event.

REFUNDS, ADDITIONAL VERTICAL AND LODGE TRANSFERS

• Your ski package includes a set amount of guaranteed vertical. If the guaranteed vertical feet are not reached due to weather or mechanical problems you will be refunded $58 per 1000 vertical feet. Extra vertical above the set amount of guaranteed vertical will be charged out at $58 per 1000 vertical feet.
• Vertical feet skied is calculated on what is actually skied/snowboarded per group by the guide that is leading the group. If the length of a run is reduced to provide better skiing conditions a minimum of 1200 vertical feet is calculated even in the event that the run is shorter.
• No refunds are given for any unused portion of your trip, resulting from late arrival, early departure, sickness, injury, accident, accommodation or meals that have not been used.
• If you decide you want to go back to the lodge during the ski day it has to be at an appropriate time (ie. lunch time or fuel run) This is to not disrupt the ski program for the other guests. The cost of the return flight will be charged to you. Approx. $1000-$1500 depending on where the groups are in the tenure.
• In case you decide not to ski/board due to fatigue or ski/snowboard skill level or for any other reason and you do not reach your guaranteed vertical feet and others do there is no refund.
• In the event that you decide not to ski/snowboard for any portion of the day or week, Bearpaw Heli-Skiing reserves the right to fill your seat with someone else such as another guide, staff or guest.
• The guides reserve the right to send guests back to the lodge during the day or to forfeit their skiing/snowboarding if their ski/snowboarding level is not adequate or below an acceptable level to be able to provide a safe and satisfactory program for all other guests involved.
• Lodge/Airport transfers outside of the scheduled shuttle pick up and drop off times will be charged out at the cost of the shuttle service, approx. $450.00. Taxi service is not recommended due to the remoteness of the lodge.
• Loss of any Bearpaw Heli ski /avalanche equipment will be charged out to the guest.

MEDICAL EVACUATION POLICY

• You will be responsible for added helicopter cost for an emergency evacuation from the mountains to our lodge or nearest medical facility, should an injury require this evacuation. This can be quite a large expense.
We strongly recommend the purchase of medical/evacuation insurance.
